I. INTRODUCTION:

The Regional Centre for Urban & Environmental Studies (RCUES), Lucknow was established at Lucknow in the year 1968 by the Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs, Government of India. It is one of the premier Centers in the country established to play a positive role in the field of urban transport management.

II. BACKGROUND

REGIONAL CENTRE FOR URBAN & ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES (RCUES), serves as the Resource Centre for different flagship projects including Smart City Mission, Urban Transport and AMRUT. It provides a range of quality Consultancy and training services to the Urban Development Departments of the ten States in the country. Besides formulating policies and programs for overall urban development in the state, the Urban Development Department, Government of Uttar Pradesh (GoUP) is also implementing a number of centrally sponsored schemes of Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs, Government of India (GoI) i.e. Smart Cities, AMRUT, Swaach Bharat Mission, etc. It is proposed that the services of qualified Consultant/s may be required for proper planning and implementation of these schemes. The Consultant will also help in project/scheme conceptualization, processing preliminary studies, assisting in procurement of technical consultants, contract management and such other works which may be deemed necessary regarding implementation of the schemes.

In view of the above RCUES Lucknow has decided to empanel agencies to create a pool of capacity that can provide technical support to implement various projects/studies/evaluations/trainings in the field of urban sector and Traffic and Road Safety Management to help ULBs to design, structure, and manage various urban development schemes/ programmes effectively in cities and towns.

Accordingly, the RCUES, Lucknow, herewith, invites EoI from eligible, Individual Professionals & LLP firms to indicate their interest to be empaneled for providing support to the RCUES, Lucknow in following categories:

Conflict of Interest

The BIDDER shall not have a conflict of interest (the “Conflict of Interest”) that affects the selection process. Any BIDDER found to have a Conflict of Interest shall be disqualified. In the event of disqualification, RCUES shall be entitled to forfeit and appropriate the Bid Security as mutually agreed genuine pre-estimated loss and damage likely to be suffered and incurred by the RCUES and not by way of penalty for, inter alia, the time, cost and effort of the RCUES, including consideration of such BIDDER’s Application (the “Damages”), without prejudice to any other right or remedy that may be available to RCUES under the agreement or otherwise.

A firm that has been engaged by the Employer to provide goods, works or Assignment/job other than consulting Assignment/job for a project, and any of its affiliates, shall be disqualified from providing consulting Assignment/job related to those goods, works or Assignment/job. Conversely, a firm hired to provide consulting Assignment/job for the preparation or implementation of a project, and any of its affiliates, shall be disqualified from subsequently providing goods or works or Assignment/job other than consulting Assignment/job resulting from or directly related to the firm's consulting Assignment/job for such preparation or implementation. For the purpose of this paragraph, Assignment/job other than consulting Assignment/job are defined as those leading to a measurable physical output, for example surveys, exploratory drilling, aerial photography, and satellite imagery.

A Consultant (including its Personnel and Sub-Consultants) or any of its affiliates shall not be hired for any Assignment/job that, by its nature, may be in conflict with another Assignment/job of the Consultant to be executed for the same or for another Employer. For example, a Consultant hired to prepare engineering design for an infrastructure project shall not be engaged to prepare an independent environmental assessment for the same project, and a Consultant assisting an Employer in the privatization of public assets shall not purchase, nor advice purchasers of, such assets. Similarly, a Consultant hired by Urban Development Department, U.P. for an Assignment/job shall not be hired for the Assignment/job for other sub-departments.

A Consultant (including its Personnel and Sub-Consultants) that has a business or family relationship with a member of the Employer's staff who is directly or indirectly involved in any part of (i) the preparation of the Terms of Reference of the Assignment/job, (ii) the selection process for such Assignment/job, or (iii) supervision of the Contract, may not be awarded a Contract, unless the conflict stemming from this relationship has been resolved in a manner acceptable to the Employer throughout the selection process and the execution of the Contract.

Consultants have an obligation to disclose any situation of actual or potential conflict that impacts their capacity to serve the best interest of their Employer, or that may reasonably be perceived as having this effect. Any such disclosure shall be made as per the Standard forms of technical proposal provided herewith. If the consultant fails to disclose said situations and if the Employer comes to know about any such situation at any time, it may lead to the disqualification of the Consultant during bidding process or the termination of its Contract during execution of assignment.

Fraud and Corrupt Practices

The BIDDERS and their respective officers, employees, agents shall observe the highest standard of ethics during the selection process. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, RCUES may reject an Application without being liable in any manner whatsoever to the BIDDER if it determines that the BIDDER has, directly or indirectly or through an agent, engaged in corrupt practice, fraudulent practice, coercive practice, undesirable practice or restrictive practice in the selection process.

Bidder should have, during the last five years, neither failed to perform on any agreement, as evidenced by imposition of a penalty by an arbitral or judicial authority or a judicial pronouncement or arbitration award against the Bidder, nor engaged in fraudulent misconducts, nor anti bribery, nor been expelled from any project or agreement nor have had any agreement terminated for breach by such Bidder.

Without prejudice to the rights of RCUES hereinabove, if the BIDDER is found by RCUES, to have directly or indirectly or through an agent, engaged or indulged in any corrupt practice, fraudulent practice, coercive practice, undesirable practice or restrictive practice during the selection process, such BIDDER shall not be eligible to participate in any of EOI/ RFP issued by RCUES during a period of 2 (two) years from the date such BIDDER is found by RCUES to have directly or indirectly or through an agent, engaged or indulged in any corrupt practice, fraudulent practice, coercive practice, undesirable practice or restrictive practice, as the case may be. For the purposes of this, the following terms shall have the meaning hereinafter respectively assigned to them:

a. “corrupt practice” means (i) the offering, giving, receiving, or soliciting, directly or indirectly, of anything of value to influence the actions of any person connected with the selection process (for avoidance of doubt, offering of employment to, or employing, or engaging in any manner whatsoever, directly or indirectly, any official of the RCUES who is or has been associated in any manner, directly or indirectly, with the selection process or the LOA or has dealt with matters concerning the agreement or arising there from, before or after the execution thereof, at any time prior to the expiry of one year from the date such official resigns or retires from or otherwise ceases to be in the service of the RCUES, shall be deemed to constitute influencing the actions of a person connected with the selection process); or (ii) engaging in any manner whatsoever, whether during the selection process or after the issue of the LOA or after the execution of the agreement, as the case may be, any person in respect of any matter relating to the Project or the LOA or the agreement, who at any time has been or is a legal, financial or technical adviser of the RCUES in relation to any matter concerning the Project;

b. “fraudulent practice” means a misrepresentation or omission of facts or suppression of facts or disclosure of incomplete facts, in order to influence the selection process;

c. “coercive practice” means impairing or harming or threatening to impair or harm, directly or indirectly, any person or property to influence any person’s participation or action in the selection process;

d. “undesirable practice” means (i) establishing contact with any person connected with or employed or engaged by the Urban Development Department, Government of UP with the objective of canvassing, lobbying or in any manner influencing or attempting to influence the selection process; or (ii) having a Conflict of Interest; and

e. “restrictive practice” means forming a cartel or arriving at any understanding or arrangement among BIDDERS with the objective of restricting or manipulating a full and fair competition in the selection process.
